REPUBLICAN TALK

West Side Speakers and Local Can didates Address a Good Sized Meeting.

Mr. Mantle Talks About Silver But Considers the Question of Little Importance.

T. C. Power, Col. Botkin, J. E. Rickard and E. D. Weed Among the speakers.

The republicans had a meeting last night in Ming's opera house, that crowded the auditorium. Good music was furnished by the city band and the Helena glee club helped to hold the attention of the flags, bunting and flowers. M. A. Meyen dorf presided. The following well known republicans were on the stage: A. J. Seligman, chairman of the state republican committee; Bon. Lee Mantle of Butte, Hor. L. H. Hershfield, Hon. Con. Kohrs, Col. Botkin, George Haldorn, Hop. J. E Botkin, George Haidorn, Hossis Rickards, republican candidate for lieuten-ant governor; Hon. I. D. McCutcheon, Col. Sanders, Joseph Davis, C. S. Warren, Dr. J. D. Anderson of Minneapolis, Capt. Fisk of the Herald, and others. Fisk of the Herald, and others.

The chairman made a short opening speech and introduced Col. Botkin as the surving evidence of democratic fraud." The colonel said the cause of electoral reform would never want for a champion as long as he had power to speak. He said the democratic party always managed to get on the wrong side of every question presented to the people. It was true that thousands of unlawful votes had been cast in this territory and that the registry system and Australian law would hereafter render such things impossible. The democratic party was an organized conspiracy against the purity of the elective tranchise.

against the purity of the elective franchis. The colonel was listened to with good deal of attention and at the good deal of attention and at the conclusion of his remarks the glee club sang a song entitled "Good-oye, Free Trader, Goodbye." The singing was good and the club was recalled. Then Mt. Meyendorfi introduced the Republican candidate for governor. There were loud calls of "Power, Power," and hats and canes went up in the air. Mr. Power stood for a minute before he could make himself heard. He stepped to the front of the stage and said: stage and said:

Mr. President, Ladies and Gentlemen:
Your cheering and enthusiasm is certainly encouraging. I am very sorry that I am not also to entertain you on the issues, but I have kind friends who will do that intellement. We have a great work before a property. We have a great work before a property of the estate of John M. Sweeny. Objection is taken to charges of the new states.

Buy The Buy The But the new states. I have kind friends who will do that like tigently. We have a great work before us. I have just returned from Butte and the west side to-day. I wish to say to you-all of you-that everything from Flathead lake to this place looks encouraging. In fact, all our friends, conservative ones, say that nothing will beat us; that our success, if we continue the work as it has been done for the last two weeks, is assur d. [Applause.] I want to thank from the bottom of my hear e republicans of Helena and Lewis and Clarke county for the earnest, faithful work done here. I also want to thank the young republican club who have so earnestly and persistently kept up the work for the great cause. You are the coming men now trying to stem the tide and get Monone. It requires close attention from all parts of the territory. We are doing our best and with your assistance i am satisfied the republican ticket will be elected. (Applauce.) Hon. J. E. Rickards, the candibouses. date for lieutenant governor, was the next speaker. He congratulated the republipressed his belief that they were all right. Wherever he had been during the present campaign he had noticed enthusiasm which predicts victory for the republican ticket on the peal, as threatened by the democracy The republicans were better organize worked for its passage in the legislature as an act of stonement. He referred to the Hon. Will Kennedy, of Jefferson. He acused the democratic leaders of spreadi tracts from republican papers and res-olutions in the territory and the whole affair edited by Mr. Toole. The speaker closed by giving the State ticket a good send off. The glee club again marched on the stage and sung "What Shall the Tariff Be?" After the song there were loud calls for Col. Sanders. The colonel, who had been sitting in the wings, came out on the stage and said he had not come to make a speech but for repose, and would introduce Hon. E. D. Weed. Mr. Weed made a red hot Republican speech and short story about a fat dog and then the Betting is always a feature of a campaign tracting great attention and many wagers are being made. But few bets can be secured against J. K. Toole for governor, but there is considerable activity between the admirers of Maginnis and Power. In this city yesterday a bet of $1,800 even was made on Maginnis and Power, another of $500 was also made on the same candidates. Bets of $300 to $200 are also made on Maginnis, and one prominent gambler is said to have $10,000 reads to $1,000 read and Montanians are generally a betting made on Maginnis, and one prominent gambler is said to have $10,000 ready to bet on Maginnis at odds. Nobody has failed to secure a taker against Maginnis, statements to the contrary notwithstand-statements to the contract of the contract Maginnis and that Maginnis men had quit," John Worth, of the Atlas biliard hall, said to an INDEPENDENT reporter last night that this is not so, as anyone wanting bets of that kind can be accommodated by calling at his place of business.

Would have ceased to bemoan his fate if but one day of his everlasting migration had been spent on the Pennsylvania Limiton. Many of them object to it at first, but soon come to like it and are generally much benefited by it." BROKEN PLEDGES.

The Independent Club Say the Republican Party Fulfills None of Its Promises.

Large Meeting at Assembly Hal Which was Addressed by Several Speakers.

The Eloquent ex-Congressman Cassidy Speak in Marysville and in This City.

The Independent Colored club held a eeting at Assembly hall last night, at which the full force of the club was presen and at the close of the meeting five new embers joined. Besides the club abou each, par value, is represented by the two hundred others were present, notwith-mines at Jay Gould, mills and other imwhich drew a good house. M. F. Sher man was the first speaker. He said the colored man had long waited for a fulfilment of the many promises made by the republican party, but they were never fulfilled. They promised the colored man equal rights and justice before the law, but they had falled to keep their promises. They had now wearied of this and had decided to ask the democratic party to help them and they propose giving them a trial to see what they will do. The republican party has been one of promises and that is all, as they continually break them after the votes are counted, and ignore the colhe votes are counted, and ignore the co red man.
Frank McConnell made a rattling speec and among other things said it has always been the aim of the republican party to at-tempt to delude the colored voter by attracting his attention to the dark side of everything that democracy has ever been ac used of and always take it for granted tha the colored man believe everything they say A party of broken piedges and partisan herefore the only party into whose care hould the government be entrusted. Wm. Wallace, jr., followed in one of his characteristic eloquent addresses. He spoke of the great change that had taken place in the colored race. They are now able to think for themselves and will no longer be led by one party regardless of right or wrong. C. B. Nolan said it must be a nauseating spectacle for the colored men to look over the continuous promises made by the re publican party to them which they neve fulfilled. He sliuded to the fact that the republicans of this county sent German wede and Irish delegates to the state ention at Anaconda in order to hold the ote. They did not think it was necessa to recognize the colored man, feeli positive that he would vote the replican ticket. But the speaker f that they would be badly mistaken the year, as it was evident that the color man was coming to a realization of the fa man was coming to a realization of the fact that the republican party is not his friend, unless it is in election times, when they wave the bloody shirt and give them all sorts of taify. The democratic party does not do this, but shows by its actions who is the people's friend and supporter—the democratic party, the party of fair and equal government to all. Before the meeting closed Frank McConnell alluded to some statements recently made by George some statements recently made by Geor Lee, which he said were absolutely fail in every particular.

Sam Word will address a meeting to be held in this city.

ury has completed its labors, finding nine en indictments, four of which, it is stated, were against T. C. Stiles, assignee of the suspended bank of Hudson & Co. The main charge is the embezzlement of large sums of money of the assets. Stiles is now in Washington territory, where he is reported to be a candidate for the su-

Commenting on the above, the Oregonian says in part: The political opponents of Mr. Stiles some days ago intimated tha The latest novels just received at The making a statement in which he said that he was the receiver of an estate in Tucson, Arizona, and that the court records, open to all, would exhibit that every cent reved has been duly and properly ac inted for; that some of the assets remain collected, and that after leaving that city to settle in Washington he had returned several times, but no attempt had ever been made to show any wrongdoing on his
